AMS POSTER GALLERY

AMS Poster Gallery was launched in April 2004. It is a non-profit project aiming to stimulate public interest in outdoor advertising, promote the best Polish poster designs and bring closer advertising and academic communities. The annual open competition for a poster on a social or cultural theme is addressed to students of art schools and young graphic designers. With hundreds of designs entering each year – it is probably Poland's the largest competition for young graphic designers. Award-winning designs are presented in national campaigns and on AMS citylights (display boxes bus/tram stop). Selected contestants were offered a placement in Poland's top advertising agencies, some were later employed. Twelve Poster Gallery competitions have been held to date:

1. Zapraszamy do...(Welcome to ..) – promotion of Polish cities and regions

The list of locations is available on <http://wroclaw.wyborcza.pl>. The circulation is six thousand.

2018

GAZETA WYBORCZA FOUNDATION

Gazeta Wyborcza Foundation was established by Agora in 2018. Following the example of New York Times Company and The Guardian Media Group, the publisher of Gazeta Wyborcza founded a non-profit organization to develop worthwhile media projects and execute important social goals.

The main goals of the foundation are to inspire development of independent, ambitious works of journalism about the key social and political subjects: investigative journalism, environmental reports and international journalistic projects, etc.

WYSOKIE OBCASY FOUNDATION

Fighting for women's rights, supporting disenfranchised groups, bringing forward unknown herstories, and publicizing issues connected to health and psychology is a daily commitment of the Wysokie Obcasy Magazine for 20 years.

Wysokie Obcasy Foundation was established in 2018 as a joint initiative of Agora and Wysokie Obcasy to support independent journalism and social initiatives to protect and promote women's rights and integrate diverse communities. Wysokie Obcasy Foundation focuses primarily on activities aimed at dismantling discrimination based on gender, age, sexual orientation, ethnicity, beliefs, health and social status, and appearance both in Poland and at a global stage.

WYBORCZA NA ZIELONO (GREEN WYBORCZA)

Gazeta Wyborcza continues to increase its commitment to highlighting ecological and climate crisis themes. Early 2019 saw the launch of Wyborcza na zielono – all sections of the daily feature texts about Poland's rapid climate change. In June 2019 water report was published, documenting the dramatic hydrological situation in Poland. Articles published in the series cover coal policy, waste management, anti-smog solutions, etc. Wysokie Obcasy launched Szanuję, nie marnuję campaign (Preserve, Don't Waste) with a series of articles aimed to inspire readers to change simple day-to-day habits of conscious buying in the spirit of less waste. An eco-newsletter was also developed, with texts about possible solutions for preventing climate disaster.

GAZETA.PL RELEASES THE LAST EVER ISSUE OF TWÓJ WEEKEND (YOUR WEEKEND) TO CELEBRATE WOMEN

AGORA Report 2019

To celebrate International Women's Day Gazeta.pl, VMLY&R Poland and partners published the last issue of Twój Weekend magazine, celebrating special women. Closing down of Poland's longest-running adult magazine that reduced women to sex objects for 27 years, was a symbolic protest to objectifying them. The last issue, instead of typical for this type of magazine photos and texts, featured materials about strength, wisdom and beauty. The familiar sections and columns were kept but filled perversely with reimagined content to give it new meaning. Interesting stories of men and women were presented in articles, interviews and commentaries. A special cover photo featured Ewa Kasprzyk, Orina Krajewska and Joanna Jędrzejczyk. The project gained international recognition in prestigious advertising industry competitions and enjoyed immense popularity.
